

CHARGES

Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway, Employee Number 39585, is charged with violating the following rules contained in Article V of the Rules and Regulations of the Chicago Police Department, which were in full force and effect on the date of the alleged violations:

- Rule 1: Violation of any law or ordinance;
- Rule 2: Any action or conduct which impedes the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals or brings discredit upon the Department;
- Rule 6: Disobedience of an order or directive, whether written or oral;
- Rule 14: Making a false report, written or oral.

SPECIFICATIONS

1. Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway, Employee Number 39585, is charged with violating Rule 1, "Violation of any law or ordinance," in the following instance:
 - Count I. On or before August 9, 2005, Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway knowingly obtained and/or exerted unauthorized control over property, to wit: a Chicago Police Department Identification Card, control number 08660, and/or knowingly obtained control over stolen property, to wit: a Chicago Police Department Identification Card, control number 08660, thereby violating Chapter 720 of the Illinois Compiled Statutes, Section 5/16-1(a)(1) and/or Section 5/16-1(a)(4).
2. Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway, Employee Number 39585, is charged with violating Rule 2, "Any action or conduct which impedes the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals or brings discredit upon the Department," in the following instance:
 - Count I. On or before July 10, 2003, Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway failed to report the loss of her Chicago Police Department Identification Card, thereby impeding the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals and/or bringing discredit upon the Department.

- Count II. On or before August 9, 2005, Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway obtained unauthorized control over a Chicago Police Department Identification Card, control number 08660, thereby impeding the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals and/or bringing discredit upon the Department.
- Count III. On or about November 14, 2005, Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway pled guilty to and was found guilty of the offense of Theft - Control of Stolen Property, thereby impeding the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals and/or bringing discredit upon the Department.
- Count IV. On or before August 9, 2005, Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway gave Chicago Police Department property, to wit: a Chicago Police Department Identification Card, to Brian Hardaway, a non-Department employee, thereby impeding the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals and/or bringing discredit upon the Department.
- Count V. On or about August 9, 2005, Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway, in a report submitted to Mary Kay Hegarty, Director of the Records Division, falsely stated that she had no knowledge that her husband, Brian Hardaway, possessed a Chicago Police Department Identification Card, thereby impeding the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals and/or bringing discredit upon the Department.
- Count VI. On or about November 22, 2005, Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway, during a statement with the Internal Affairs Division, falsely stated that she did not give a Chicago Police Department Identification Card to her husband, Brian Hardaway, thereby impeding the Department's efforts to achieve its policy and goals and/or bringing discredit upon the Department.

3. Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway, Employee Number 39585, is charged with violating Rule 6, "Disobedience of an order or directive, whether written or oral," in one or more of the following instances:

- Count I. On or before July 10, 2003, Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway failed to report the loss of her Chicago Police Department Identification Card, contrary to Department Special Order 03-11, Section VIII.A.1., thereby violating a written order.

Count II. On or before August 9, 2005, Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway gave Chicago Police Department property, to wit: a Chicago Police Department Identification Card, to Brian Hardaway, a non-Department employee, contrary to Department Special Order 03-11, Section II.C., thereby violating a written order.

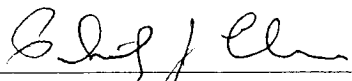

Count III. On or before August 9, 2005, Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway gave Chicago Police Department property, to wit: a Chicago Police Department Identification Card, to Brian Hardaway, a non-Department employee, contrary to Administrative Special Order 04-04, Section II.C., thereby violating a written order.

4. Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway, Employee Number 39585, is charged with violating Rule 14, "Making a false report, written or oral," in one or more of the following instances:

Count I. On or about August 9, 2005, Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway, in a report submitted to Mary Kay Hegarty, Director of the Records Division, stated that she had no knowledge that her husband, Brian Hardaway, possessed a Chicago Police Department Identification Card, thereby making a false written report.

Count II. On or about November 22, 2005, Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway, during a statement to the Internal Affairs Division, stated that she did not give her husband, Brian Hardaway, a Chicago Police Department Identification Card, thereby making a false oral report.

Based on the foregoing charges and specifications, the Superintendent recommends that Fingerprint Technician II Regina Martin-Hardaway, Employee Number 39585, be discharged from the Chicago Police Department.

PHILIP J. CLINE

Superintendent of Police

APPROVED AS TO FORM

THOMAS AUMANN

Assistant Corporation Counsel

Labor Division

P. B. CASE # FILED

07-2624 JAN 17 2007

CHICAGO POLICE BOARD